

MotoAmerica Mini Cup Season Entry Fee - $1450 (*see note)

Obligations

- Rider must have MotoAmerica/AMA Mini Cup racing license issued by the AMA
- All bikes must have a transponder – you must provide your own transponder– each bike must have different transponder.
- MotoAmerica’s fuel supplier is VP and it is preferred that this brand be used. VP MGP fuel must be used. No branding, decals or signage or fuel brands other than VP will be allowed.
- Provide a professional and clean appearance

Benefits

- Guaranteed entry for each round (4 races)
- Friday practice included
- Priority paddock location for 10’X10” EZ up and small cargo trailer
- 2 single event paddock passes per event (8 total) for crew/guests
- 1 pit vehicle pass – scooter operators must be age 16 or older

Additional fees

- Additional single event paddock passes for crew/guests - $59.00 per person per event over age 12
- RV parking available for additional cost – registration is available per event here:
<http://www.motoamericaregistration.com/competition-calendar/>

*Multiple classes require additional fee – $1000 to add a second class to the season entry

MotoAmerica Mini Cup Single Event Entry Fee - $250 – per class

Obligations

- Rider must have MotoAmerica/AMA Mini Cup racing license issued by the AMA
- All bikes must have a transponder – you must provide your own transponder – each bike must have different transponder.
- MotoAmerica’s fuel supplier is VP and it is preferred that this brand be used. VP MGP fuel must be used. No branding, decals or signage or fuel brands other than VP will be allowed.
- Provide a professional and clean appearance

Benefits

- Paddock space for one 10’X10’ EZ up and small cargo trailer
- 1 P1 parking pass
- 1 pit vehicle pass – scooter operators must be age 16 or older
- Friday practice included

Additional fees

- Additional single event paddock passes for crew/guests - $59.00 per person per event over age 12
- RV parking available for additional cost – registration is available per event here:
<http://www.motoamericaregistration.com/competition-calendar/>