DECISION OF THE FIM NORTH AMERICA STEWARDS

Understanding the time sensitive nature of the need for a decision of the FIM North America Stewards panel, this will serve as notification of that decision. All parties understand that a comprehensive report and decision document will be forth coming as soon as possible. This document will be made available to all parties involved.

With regards to the sanction imposed by Race Direction against Superbike rider Josh Herrin at Sonoma Raceway. After a complete review of the incident and interviewing all parties involved, it is the decision of the appeal stewards that the sanction imposed by Race Direction is within the standards set forth in the 2017 MotoAmerica AMA Road Racing Series FIM North America Championship Regulations. For this reason the Stewards Panel is supporting the validity of the Race Direction decision and the sanction imposed.

It is noted that the rider, Josh Herrin was not present for the Appeal hearing and allowed a team representative to attend on his behalf.
